

Police Visit

We were fortunate enough to have some police officers come to visit us in Fox Class! The children were able to chat to the police officers and ask them questions about their job. They also got to sit in the police car and turn the sirens on and off! The visit was useful for helping children to understand that the police are there help us and to keep to keep us safe.

