

Weddings

When learning about weddings, children got to experience our own wedding venue in our classroom. They were able to dress up in wedding clothes and experience what it would be like! They all sat around the wedding table and pretended to share food. A couple of weeks later, we were fortunate enough to visit the local church for a different event, but children were very interested in looking at the church as a place to get married!

