Dear Parents/Carers

Firstly, I would like to thank everyone for making me feel so welcome over the last couple of weeks. I am already enjoying being part of a wonderful school.

As I write this, I am enjoying a fantastic residential with Hawks class, they have been busy doing chocolate workshops, visiting the biomes at day and night and today they are heading off ice skating, they have had an amazing time and their behaviour has been impeccable and they are a credit to Lewannick School.

Last Friday, nine children took part in the cross country league race at a very muddy Cotehele, they all did amazingly well.

On Wednesday myself and Miss Asprey took Piran, Robert, Charlie, Lily G, Oliver, Sarah and Amy to a football tournament at St Joseph's School in Launceston, the team did brilliantly in all of the matches they played, on a very cold and windy afternoon.

I have to say that I am very proud of the children and what they continue to achieve.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mr Fugill

To parents of children in year 4, 5 & 6

Polite reminder to all parents/carers.

Please do not come through the side gate next to pre-school at the end of the school day to collect your child.

They will meet you around the front of the school.

Also, could you ask your child to make sure they try to remember to latch the gate behind them as they pass through.

Thank you.
